

We, the people, no longer have a voice that is heard in government.
I do want telephone privacy wheather on my "land line" or on a Cellular phone.
My conversation's are no one else's business, nor do i want to be ran over by junk from third party intervention.